The court may assign related actions to a single district judge and magistrate judge. See D. Nev. Local R. 42-1(a). The undersigned district judge assigned to this case, District Judge Gloria M. Navarro, has determined that efficiency and consistency will be promoted by assigning the case to a single magistrate judge, and by assigning one district judge to hear the parties' appeals of and objections to the magistrate judge's rulings on non-substantive motions (e.g., discovery and pre-trial issues).¹ District Judge Navarro will retain this case for trial and will rule upon substantive and trial-related motions.²
